

Fancy Vests.

The White and Fancy Vest is always a mark of prosperity. There's nothing that so tones up a man's appearance as a Vest that's different.

The man who cares and who dresses well has two or three.

We have some very choice designs in several washable materials—silk mixtures, cashmeres, cassimeres, etc., etc. Cut and trimmed, in the most artistic and correct manner—$1.50, $2, $2.50 to $5.

New ideas and the right things to wear, you know, are never absent from this store.

Kirk-Parrish Co.

The Clothiers,
412 East Broad.

INDIAN MAID WINS AT MONCIEF PARK

Feature Event Taken by Butwell's Superior Jockeyship.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., December 9.—The feature of to-day's card at Moncief was the race for two-year-olds, the second of the card, which went to Indian Maid, whose price at the closing time was 3 to 1. Butwell's superior jockeyship was largely responsible for the victory. La Reine Hindoo and Merry Gift, both favorites, won and took considerable money with him, both horses being played heavily. Irrigator proved a surprise in the sixth, and won for a few backers at a price as good as 7 to 1. Summary:

First race—five and a half furlongs, selling, three-year-olds and up—Night Mist, 10 (Trotter), 5 to 1, first; Giovanni Raglio, 109 (G. Burns), 9 to 2, second; Alencon, 100 (Howard), 8 to 5, third. Time, 1:09 1-5.

Second race—six furlongs, purse, two-year-olds—Indian Maid, 105 (Butwell), 4 to 1, first; Slicker, 104 (Leach), 6 to 1, second; Abrasion, 110 (Howard), 11 to 10, third. Time, 1:15 3-5.

Third race—seven furlongs, selling, three-year-olds—Aunt Kate, 105 (Butwell), 3 to 1, first; George W. Lebolt, 104 (G. Burns), 7 to 5, second; Admonish, 105 (Franklin), 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:23 3-5.

Fourth race—seven furlongs, selling, three-year-olds—La Reine Hindoo, 109 (Powers), 7 to 5, first; Ragman, 104 (J. Reid), 9 to 5, second; Home Run, 107 (Moore), 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:23 3-5.

Fifth race—one mile, selling, three-year-olds—Merry Gift, 103 (G. Burns), 6 to 5, first; Anna L. Daley, 104 (J. Reid), 9 to 5, second; Flanery, 103 (Obert), 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:42 1-5.

Sixth race—mile and sixteenth, selling—Irrigator, 103 (Obert), 7 to 1, first; Mamie Algott, 103 (Howard), 13 to 10, second; Roseberg II, 106 (Hannan), 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:50 1-5.

GREAT DERBY WON BY PALMETTONELL

Richmond Dog Takes First Place in Event at Spray.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] SPRAY, N. C., December 9.—The Great Virginia-Carolina Derby was finished to-day and won by Palmettonell, a liver and white pointer, owned by Louis Washer, of Richmond, who was present and handled his own dog. Mr. Washer is well known in Richmond as a member of the City Council and a prominent merchant. He is delighted with his winning, and is receiving congratulations from his friends. In addition to the big cash prize goes a handsome silver cup, which Mr. Washer will take home.

Second place went to Nantahala, a black and white setter dog, owned by E. P. Wilkins, of Riverton, Va. Third place went to Consolation, who was a white and tan setter dog, owned by Dr. George A. Prinkel, Staunton, Va., and fourth place went to Aitha B., owned by Dr. Leigh Buckner, of Roanoke. After the derby was finished the big free-for-all stake was begun. The first race run was Oakley Hills King, owned by W. G. Hundley, Callands, Va., with Stendous Don, owned by E. T. Stendous, Winston-Salem. They found birds and made a good show. The next race was by far the best in range, speed and style. They were Della Fox, owned by Charles B. Cooke, of Richmond, and Ransom Fred, owned by James B. Boits, of Roanoke. They ran a great heat without finding birds. The third race was Young Sports Boy, owned by Charles B. Cooke, with Dick Swift, owned by Dr. Leigh Buckner. They ran a good race. Boy pointed several birds. The fourth race was Tom Edwards, owned by Richards & Mahony, of Roanoke, with Count Gladstone, owned by James T. Rutherford, of Richmond. They did splendid work, but found no birds.

The derby winner was bred by Lou B. Ying, of East Radford, Va., the Chinese member of the association. At the annual meeting Dr. Leigh Buckner, of Roanoke, was elected president; E. P. Wilkins, of Riverton, first vice-president; J. C. Tignor, Richmond, second vice-president, and Charles B. Cooke, Richmond, Va., secretary and treasurer.

The free-for-all will be finished tomorrow.

RALEIGH OUT OF LEAGUE.

Only Three Towns Hold Franchise in East Carolina Organization.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., December 9.—Raleigh withdrew to-night from the East Carolina Baseball League because Durham would not come into the league unless a six-team league was assured. To-night Fayetteville, Hocky Mount and Wilmington retain league organization, and hope to induce Goldsboro and Wilson to retain membership and add some other good Eastern Carolina town to give a six-team league. Sales, of Wilmington, was elected president. It is believed the outcome of the present season will be the addition of Raleigh and Durham to the Carolina League.

PUBLIC FAVORITES WIN AT TAMPA RACES

Running of Day's Card Attended by Splendid Weather.

TAMPA, FLA., December 9.—Splendid weather attended the running of to-day's card, when the public was again rewarded by their choices. Six favorites won, one of them, Julietta M., being the good thing of the day. The summaries:

First race—five furlongs, selling—Julietta M., 106 (Mountain), 2 to 1, first; Bob Lovers, 111 (Conly), 2 to 1, second; Alegria, 111 (T. Burns), 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:05 1-5.

Second race—five furlongs, for two-year-olds, selling—Colonel Ashcroft, 115 (Jackson), 5 to 5, first; Catherine Mountour, 110 (Glasner), 12 to 1, second; Ainslie, 110 (Cole), 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:06 2-5.

Third race—six furlongs, selling—E. T. Shipp, 101 (Jackson), 6 to 5, first; Admonish, 104 (Glasner), 8 to 1, second; Light Blue, 102 (Helly), 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:13 3-5.

Fourth race—mile, selling—Otto, 101 (Davenport), even, first; Descompt, 101 (Lovell), 9 to 2, second; Alice, 99 (A. Burton), 5 to 1, third. Time, 1:48.

Fifth race—mile and a sixteenth, selling—Elysium, 101 (Davenport), 6 to 5, first; King's Guinea, 115 (Conly), 4 to 1, second; Davenport, 109 (Gavin), 10 to 1, third. Time, 1:55 3-5.

Sixth race—mile and a sixteenth, selling—Venus, 104 (Davenport), 6 to 5, first; Orange Lad, 105 (Lovell), 12 to 1, second; Conville, 110 (McArdle), 2 to 1, third. Time, 1:57.

SERIES OF SPILLS SLOWS RIDING RACE

Leaders Lose Hard-Earned Laps by Falls From Wheels.

NEW YORK, December 9.—A series of spills to-night robbed Rutt and Clark and Root and Fogler of two hard-earned laps, and slowed down the pace of the six-day bicycle race at Madison Square Garden. Under the rules a lap four-fifths won goes for naught in a spill. It must be a full lap to count. But there is always a chance for a distanced fall-ender to rob the leaders by a deliberate fall, and there were cries to-night of "faker" when the tumbles came too opportunely to please the crowd.

At 10 o'clock the sprinters had apparently given up trying to gain distance in despair, and the score stood 1,831 miles for the leaders as against 1,828 1/2 a year ago.

At 10:30 there was a bad smash-up direct in the front of the judges' stand, in which Pie, Allhout and West went down in a heap. West was badly injured, the head and had several of his teeth knocked out, but pluckily got up again and rushed into the race.

Five minutes later, Clark, Rutt, the reconstructed team of Clark-Rutt, shot out from the bunch in a furious sprint that lasted for six minutes. When the riders strung out in a first against it, it was found that the judges had awarded Clark and Rutt the lap they lost as a penalty for combing anew.

Hardly had the dust cleared from the last spill when another team, this time Stein and Hill, made a dash for a lost lap. They got it and at 11 o'clock the score stood 1,831 miles for the leaders as against 1,828 1/2 a year ago.

Root, Porter, Dawson-Demara, Walther-Collins, Halstead-Lawrence, Plefair, Hill-Stein, Rutt-Clark, 1,831; Mitten-West, Cameron-Krebs, Anderson, 1,831; Halstead-Lawrence, Plefair, 1,831; German-Carapuzzi, 1,718.

The record for the ninety-fifth hour was 1,850, made last year by McFarland and Moran.

Two days later Dr. Love was urgently summoned to call at 14 Henry Street, a three-story frame dwelling house, where he again found Okey in bed. She lay with her head to the foot of the bed and appeared in the same extraordinary condition mentally as he had found her before. The next day, while passing the house in his automobile, Dr. Love thought how peculiar the case was and thought he would just make a chance call, but when he knocked at the door of the sick room he found it locked. He heard the sound of some one walking inside, and yet no one came to the door.

After repeated knocking it opened just a crack, and instinctively feeling that something was wrong, he forced his way in. On the bed lay Okey unconscious. The pupils of her eyes were greatly dilated, her breathing like that of a person either drugged or hypnotized. Beside the bed stood Miss Wardlaw.

"What have you done to this girl?" demanded the doctor. "Nothing, nothing," was the steady reply. "You must have drugged her," exclaimed the physician. "Her condition proves it. There is something wrong about this whole case. This is the last I will have to do with it."

That was the last that the doctor thought of the matter until he identified Mrs. Miss Wardlaw and her niece, Mrs. Okey W. M. Snead, by their newspaper pictures.

Because of a peculiar similarity between the deaths of Okey Snead and John D. W. Snead, her first cousin, both of whom were heavily insured in favor of the old women, shows that both met their deaths while Miss Virginia Wardlaw was near. For this reason the circumstances surrounding the fate of John Snead have again been probed by the insurance companies, with the result that he, like Okey, appeared to be the victim of hypnotic spells, during which on three different occasions he tried to commit suicide. It is believed by the New Jersey authorities that the two cases will be closely interwoven when Miss Virginia Wardlaw is brought to trial.

"Mrs. Martin will not be arrested and her present hiding place will not be discovered," was the assertion of Mrs. Mary Snead, mother of Fletcher Snead and sister of Miss Wardlaw, as she was leaving her room at 106 West Twenty-second Street, this afternoon, with her attorney, Franklin W. Fort.

"When the proper time comes Mrs. Martin will appear and give testimony at the trial of Miss Wardlaw, which will quickly settle all suspicion as to the cause of Okey's death."

It was positively established to-day that Mrs. Martin went to Christiansburg about three weeks ago, and has not since departed by train. Albert C. Snead, who is named as beneficiary in a $100,000 policy on the life of Okey Snead, has been in Palestine, Col., about a year. He has not left the valley since he arrived.

"If Fletcher Snead is here I have not seen him," he declared to-day to a correspondent. "I have received no letters from Fletcher or his wife for six months."

Whereabouts of Mrs. Martin. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ROANOKE, VA., December 9.—It is believed here that Mrs. Caroline B. Martin, the much-wanted mother of Okey Snead, the victim of the bathtub

Every Clothing Buyer

owes it to himself, his personal appearance and his pocket to come to this Great Appareling Headquarters before purchasing his winter outfit. Clothes of decidedly higher class and character at Lower Prices than the vastly inferior kind are surely advantages that demand investigation. "You pay no Agents' Profits when you buy here."

Whether $12.50 or $35

is the amount you have allotted for either Suit or Overcoat, we believe we have the style, the fabric, the color and pattern which will appeal to your taste, we know we have it unparalleled for Quality and Value.

At $12.50

Men's fashionable Suits in a big variety of fancy Worsteds, pure wool Cheviots and Cassimeres as well as winter weight, all pure wool navy blue Serges—the $15.00 kinds elsewhere are no better.

At $15.00

Men's fine Suits and excellent quality pure wool Worsteds, Cassimeres and Cheviots in the newest patterns and hand-tailored throughout—the productions of the Burk tailor shop and every bit as good as the $20 kinds of most places.

At $20.00 to $35.00

Suits and Overcoats that rank with the best and finest of custom tailors' productions at fabulous prices. The same fabrics, linings and fittings, often better.

Burk & Company.

TOMAHAWK CLUB ENJOYS FINE RUN

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

ORANGE, VA., December 9.—The Tomahawk Hunt Club, of Orange county, enjoyed one of the weekly drags this afternoon. The meet was on the place of Wallace Sanford, who is the master of the pack. The drag was through the farms of Wallace Sanford,

W. W. Sanford, Woodruff Duncan and Miss Nellie Scott, covering a distance of about six miles.

The afternoon was just right for a run, and those who rode had a great time. After the run the club was given a spread by Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Sanford at their home.

Those riding were Wallace Sanford, Mr. F. H. on Sundance, Mrs. W. W. Osborne, on Orient; W. W. Osborne, on Kenesaw; J. W. Andrews, on Bluebird; Jaffray Woodruff, on Kitty; J. J. Woodruff, on Chance; F. G. Scott, on Happy; Jack Lightfoot, on Lady Grace; Robt. Whitehurst, of Richmond, on Lady Ann; A. C. Wambersie, on Atlas; Miss Bertie Woodruff, on Thoroughbred; Miss Elsie Woodruff, on Nina.

SCENES AT FUNERAL OF MRS. OKEY SNEAD

MRS. MARY W. SNEAD AND FRANKLIN W. FORT AT THE GRAVE OF MRS. OKEY W. M. SNEAD.

HYPNOTISM USED TO SUGGEST DEATH

(Continued From Page One—Column 1.)

a peculiar condition which defied diagnosis. She appeared to be in a sort of trance. When she spoke, her voice had a faraway sound. The next day the doctor received a hurry call, and being unable to go himself, he asked Dr. Wilkie to call in his stead. Dr. Wilkie found that the young woman had pains in the back and groins, and that she also appeared to be in a queer mental condition.

Failed to Give Patient Diet.

On a later visit Dr. Love discovered that the old woman never was giving the patient the diet he ordered. This they excused by saying that they could not get the food they wanted at the hotel. For the reason that the black-vailed woman acted so mysteriously, coming and going at all hours, and avoiding all contact with every one else in the hotel, the management requested them to leave. This they did on September 24, Okey at that time walking out of the hotel and down the street as if nothing was the matter with her.

Two days later Dr. Love was urgently summoned to call at 14 Henry Street, a three-story frame dwelling house, where he again found Okey in bed. She lay with her head to the foot of the bed and appeared in the same extraordinary condition mentally as he had found her before. The next day, while passing the house in his automobile, Dr. Love thought how peculiar the case was and thought he would just make a chance call, but when he knocked at the door of the sick room he found it locked. He heard the sound of some one walking inside, and yet no one came to the door.

After repeated knocking it opened just a crack, and instinctively feeling that something was wrong, he forced his way in. On the bed lay Okey unconscious. The pupils of her eyes were greatly dilated, her breathing like that of a person either drugged or hypnotized. Beside the bed stood Miss Wardlaw.

"What have you done to this girl?" demanded the doctor. "Nothing, nothing," was the steady reply. "You must have drugged her," exclaimed the physician. "Her condition proves it. There is something wrong about this whole case. This is the last I will have to do with it."

That was the last that the doctor thought of the matter until he identified Mrs. Miss Wardlaw and her niece, Mrs. Okey W. M. Snead, by their newspaper pictures.

Because of a peculiar similarity between the deaths of Okey Snead and John D. W. Snead, her first cousin, both of whom were heavily insured in favor of the old women, shows that both met their deaths while Miss Virginia Wardlaw was near. For this reason the circumstances surrounding the fate of John Snead have again been probed by the insurance companies, with the result that he, like Okey, appeared to be the victim of hypnotic spells, during which on three different occasions he tried to commit suicide. It is believed by the New Jersey authorities that the two cases will be closely interwoven when Miss Virginia Wardlaw is brought to trial.

REMOVING BODY OF MRS. OKEY W. M. SNEAD FROM UNDERTAKERS.

claimed the physician. "Her condition proves it. There is something wrong about this whole case. This is the last I will have to do with it."

That was the last that the doctor thought of the matter until he identified Mrs. Miss Wardlaw and her niece, Mrs. Okey W. M. Snead, by their newspaper pictures.

Because of a peculiar similarity between the deaths of Okey Snead and John D. W. Snead, her first cousin, both of whom were heavily insured in favor of the old women, shows that both met their deaths while Miss Virginia Wardlaw was near. For this reason the circumstances surrounding the fate of John Snead have again been probed by the insurance companies, with the result that he, like Okey, appeared to be the victim of hypnotic spells, during which on three different occasions he tried to commit suicide. It is believed by the New Jersey authorities that the two cases will be closely interwoven when Miss Virginia Wardlaw is brought to trial.

"Mrs. Martin will not be arrested and her present hiding place will not be discovered," was the assertion of Mrs. Mary Snead, mother of Fletcher Snead and sister of Miss Wardlaw, as she was leaving her room at 106 West Twenty-second Street, this afternoon, with her attorney, Franklin W. Fort.

"When the proper time comes Mrs. Martin will appear and give testimony at the trial of Miss Wardlaw, which will quickly settle all suspicion as to the cause of Okey's death."

It was positively established to-day that Mrs. Martin went to Christiansburg about three weeks ago, and has not since departed by train. Albert C. Snead, who is named as beneficiary in a $100,000 policy on the life of Okey Snead, has been in Palestine, Col., about a year. He has not left the valley since he arrived.

"If Fletcher Snead is here I have not seen him," he declared to-day to a correspondent. "I have received no letters from Fletcher or his wife for six months."

Whereabouts of Mrs. Martin. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ROANOKE, VA., December 9.—It is believed here that Mrs. Caroline B. Martin, the much-wanted mother of Okey Snead, the victim of the bathtub

LECTURE ON "By-Ways in England" BY REV. W. MEADE CLARK, AT WOMAN'S CLUB, SATURDAY, DEC. 11, AT 8:15 P. M., for benefit of SHELTERING ARMS HOSPITAL. ADMISSION 50 CENTS. PUBLIC INVITED. Tickets on sale at Mrs. B. S. Hume's, 1135 West Avenue, and at the door.

Amusements. BIJOU—This Week EDWARDS C. WHITS. CHARLES DICKENS'S MASTERPIECE David Copperfield NEXT WEEK Farewell Tour THERAYS IN KING CASBY

FIGHT WILL BE HELD IN SALT LAKE CITY

Rickard Denies That There Is Anything Crooked in Arrangements.

BOSTON, December 9.—"The Jeffries-Johnson bout will be held in Salt Lake City, and it will be no fake," was Tex Rickard's positive declaration here to-day.

"I am sick of this fake talk," said Rickard, "and I will give any one $5,000 if they will show me anything crooked in the arrangements."

"I knew the day before the bids were opened that Johnson would stand by me, and that Jeffries would be with Jack Gleason, so we got together and talked the matter over and came to an understanding. Coffroth told Gleason to go ahead and come in with me."

"That left Coffroth out of the whole affair, and I want the public to know he has nothing to do with it."

"It will not have to fix any official in Salt Lake City in order to pull the bout off there. The bankers, brokers, and business men of the city want me to hold it there, and have given me all the assurance necessary that it will not be interfered with. The Salt Palace, where the bout will be held, will, with some alterations, hold about 30,000 people."

WILL PRACTICE IN DANVILLE.

Newark Club, of Eastern League, Will Use Local Grounds.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] DANVILLE, VA., December 9.—Arrangements were completed to-day whereby the primary practice of the baseball team of the Newark, N. J., club, of the Eastern League, will be held on the grounds in this city.

J. J. Martin, the business manager of the Newark team, was in the city and made an of the arrangements for the use of the local baseball park and for the accommodation of the players while here. The Newark club, numbering over twenty players, will arrive here on March 15, and will remain for two weeks. During their stay in the city the ball players and others connected with the club will be quartered at the Burton Hotel.

Many Hunters in the Field.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, VA., December 9.—The recent rain, which broke a long drought, has had the effect of sending hunters in great numbers to the field. There have been only a few days since the season opened in which hunting has been enjoyable, but the rain and colder weather has given the best conditions now that have prevailed yet this season.

BEST 67 YEARS AGO. BEST TO-DAY
"THERE IS NONE BETTER"
KENTUCKY GREENBRIER
BOTTLED IN BOND
The Kaufman Distilling Co.,
129 West Third Street, Cincinnati, O.
THE OLD SPRING DISTILLING CO.,
CINCINNATI, OHIO

"Nothing New Under the Sun"
Maybe not, but we touch it as close as any store offering you merchandise when it comes to Bright, New, Catchy Stuff.
After shopping around, look in and see our NEW-OLD DAMASCUS BRASSES. One specially new feature is a line of Enamelled or Copper, which can only be made by one family in Syria (exclusive enough, we think), $1.00 to $5.00.
Large line of Book Holders, $1.50 to $7.50.
Vintine's Conserves—Pineapples, Cherries, Ginger, Oranges, etc.—15c to 75c.
Library Desk Sets, $5.00 to $24.00.
Leather Lap Tablets, $1.00 to $8.00.
Naturally, BOOKS at the BOOK STORE, and we are "Cut Rate" people at that.

HUNTER & CO., Inc.,
BOOKMEN AND STATIONERS,
629 East Broad Street.

mystery at East Orange, N. J., will be located within the next forty-eight hours. Stories reaching here this evening from Christiansburg, where the Martins, Wardlaw and Sneads, the parties figuring in the tub puzzle, formerly owned and operated the Montgomery Female Seminary, are to the effect that Mrs. Martin is at the home of a relative two miles from Christiansburg. It is stated that on the night Mrs. Martin was believed to have left Christiansburg for Roanoke, three weeks ago, that she did not board a train, but that she summoned a hackman after reaching the Christiansburg depot, and had herself and her baggage transferred to a farmhouse in the country, and that her sister, who resides in Christiansburg, has been paying nightly visits to her ever since.

One of the most remarkable stories of the recent summer days of mystery was the dealing they had with John L. Vaughan, of Radford, Va., who is a wealthy capitalist of that town and president of the Bank of Shawsville.

Very Man in Mystery. Mrs. Martin was called up by phone, and was told that a party from New York was anxious to see him about a large real estate transaction, and soon after wards a closed carriage drove to the door of Vaughan's home in Radford.

He was called out, and Mrs. Martin introduced herself. Mrs. Snead and her son, Albert Snead, were also in the carriage, and although it was a warm summer day the curtains were drawn and the storm-door up in front. Mrs. Martin began by telling Vaughan that they were from New York, and were the owners of the Montgomery Female College at Christiansburg, that they were strangers here, but were looking for some one to take charge of the property. They were expecting to receive an endowment for the college in a short time. Mr. Vaughan had been highly recommended to them, and from an investigation they made had ascertained that he was the very man they wanted.

Mrs. Martin then brought out from the carriage a bundle wrapped in a newspaper and handed it to Mr. Vaughan, stating that they wanted to give the contents to him. He opened the bundle and found that it contained $1,200 in paper money. Mrs. Martin further remarked that they had intended to offer him $2,000 for his influence and name in connection with the college, but after further consideration were of the opinion that he would be worth more to them, and she hoped he would accept the money; that once Vaughan told them that he could not accept so unusual a fee under these conditions, but that he would investigate the matter. Mrs. Martin insisted on his going to Christiansburg, and looking over the property with her. He thought they acted rather queerly, but finally consented to go, not, however, until he had gone back to his room and gotten his traveling grip, in which he took the pains to deposit a pistol.

On arrival at the college Vaughan was ushered into the "red room," which was splendidly furnished, and told that he might consider that to be his home in the future. He demurred, stating that he had a home in Radford, and did not care to change his place of residence.

He was shown over the college building, which was badly in need of repairs, and asked as to his opinion of the cost of putting the building in good shape. He was again offered the roll of $1,200, but this time as a retainer. It was then proposed that he should be made dean of the college, which was to be opened that fall in grand style. He was told that they had plenty of money, and as evidence of the fact they unearthed several rolls of money in trash barrels, out of the way closets, and in almost unknown places for the keeping of money. They said that the bunches of money showed him represented $7,000 in cash.

After supper at the home of Mrs. Martin's sister, Mr. Vaughan made an excuse to leave, but was taken in hand by Miss Virginia Wardlaw, the woman now under arrest in East Orange, N. J., charged with the murder of her niece.

Miss Wardlaw had him return to the college, where he spent the night. The next morning his breakfast was served in his room. It developed that Mrs. Martin wanted Vaughan to advance a large loan on the college, presumably for the purpose of putting it in repair. He was offered 20 per cent. on his money. He took the money under consideration, and would have advanced it had the woman put up what he considered proper collateral.

Since that time Mr. Vaughan and the Bank of Shawsville, of which institution he is president, have been besieged on a number of occasions to loan them money. Mrs. Martin spent two or three days at Shawsville about a month ago, trying to borrow money from Mr. Vaughan.

Another interesting story has to do with a girl baby that was left on the doorstep of R. A. Hancock, of Roanoke, last spring. The little one was taken in by the Hancock and has since been adopted by them. A few weeks after the baby was found on the steps, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Wardlaw came to Roanoke, appeared at the Hancock home, begged to be allowed to adopt the child.

"You don't know it, darling one, but I am your grandmother," is an expression alleged to have been made by Mrs. Martin in baby talk, to the infant, as she stroked its head fondly.

Mrs. Martin tried to persuade Mrs. Hancock to take the baby and go with her to Christiansburg, telling her that she could have charge of the Montgomery Female College, and make her home there the remainder of her life.

Our Specials
75c Carpet, made, lined and laid, 50c.
3 dozen Comforts, worth $2.00, for $1.38.

Our Kitchen Cabinets saves steps, time and worry, and, best of all, saves you many dollars. Priced from $10.00 to $30.00

Our Excelsior Gas Range
with one of our Kitchen Cabinets reduces kitchen work to a minimum. Size like cut, $16.00.

Don't forget the little ones.
Children's Rockers from 50c to $3.50.
Children's Desks from $4.00 and up.
Children's Go-Carts, $2.50 to $6.00.